WELCOME, BRIDE TO BE!

Congratulations, what an exciting time this is!

Firstly, thank you for showing interest in my services, I am so excited to hear from you and hopefully work with you.

I have put together this document so you can quickly familiarise yourself with me and my services.

I am Lucy, your calm morning presence and a friend on your wedding morning (and all throughout your wedding planning). I am based in South Devon and I have lived here for over 7 years. I feel so fortunate to live in such a wonderful area. I have been in the wedding industry for over 4 years and it's felt like an absolute dream.

When I am not at a wedding or doing some glamming, I am either working in a local beauty salon, somewhere with my dog, by the beach or somewhere in Cornwall. I truly thrive in the nature.

Being a part of so many brides wedding days brings me so much joy and it's an absolute honour to be able to create your bridal makeup vision along with forming a friendly connection. Of course professionalism never gets left behind because as fun, enjoyable and relaxing I strive on my services to be, there is always a professional side involved and hence there are also a couple documents involved. This is just for you to really get the most out of my services and to know exactly what to expect.

I would love to be a part of your wedding day but if you have any questions before you decide if you'd like to book, why not arrange a discovery call?

This is a call, that usually takes around 20 to 30 minutes and it's free of charge and obligation free.

Simply email or message me and I will be there to chat.

We'll have a relaxed chat to explore your wedding details and what you're looking for in a makeup artist.

I'll walk you through how the process works, and you're welcome to ask anything—from booking logistics to makeup styles
